Hello, _____ !

the Road to China

This month, I have been blessed to have been in churches across North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia! • My mission board had their orientation this month. I always enjoy being with other missionaries that I consider heroes of the faith. • On one of my trips, I was able to share the gospel with a man named Billy. He had many questions about what the Bible says about life and life after death. Please pray for God to water the seed that was planted. • I had the opportunity to spend time with the missionary families that had been kicked out of China recently (Jake and Steph Taube and John and Alisha Walz). What an encouragement it was to be with them, hear and learn from their experience, and see their continued desires to serve the Lord!

the Work in China

Ning and Sadie Xu

Xu Ning began as the language school teacher for a missionary to China in 2009. While Xu taught him Chinese, the missionary taught him the Gospel of Jesus Christ. He accepted Christ as Savior and became the missionary's first Chinese convert and later expressed a desire for ministry. He was disciplined and trained for ministry by this missionary. Today, Xu has started a church in another part of the city and still works closely with the missionary to China. He has been arrested a few times for his work in the gospel ministry, but continues to preach the Gospel and work to plant other churches despite the persecution he has already faced. During my time in China, I had opportunities to work and serve alongside of him. Xu is married to Sadie and has two children.

the Cookie Quote

from Chinese Proverbs,

to Biblical truths.

Chinese Proverb: "A bird does not sing because it has an answer. It sings because it has a song."

Biblical Truth: "A Christian can rejoice and worship God in suffering, not because the Christian has all the answers, but because God does and dwells within the Christian."
