Dear fellow laborers in the Truth, the Road to China

This month I got to see a young man that I had taught in a Bible study a few years ago. At the time, Brad was in high school and I had just got back from my 6 month internship in China. Having spent all those months learning to disciple others and teach the Bible in my hometown. I started a Bible study for teenage guys. It was a joy to spend time with and teach these young men week after week. However, there were multiple times that I wondered if anything would come of their lives. After 7 months, I moved to Georgia to continue training for full time mission work. Since then, some of these young men have continued on to do great things for God. When I ran into this particular young man, he was teaching individuals in his church in preparation for a mission trip they would soon be taking. He had been a leader in the campus ministry at his secular college. Every time I had seen him since moving, he always had other young men with him that he was discipling. He was interning at the church and desires to go into full time ministry in some aspect. Please pray for Brad as he continues to serve God and for future Brad's in China.

the Work in China

Part6: When I was in the barber shop in the prison, the guy who cut my hair, a spy, said, 'We already have four people sentenced to death. You are one of them, we will execute you.' They put me in a place, and outside my room there was some clean water, so every day I did my laundry and I washed and took a bath. Every time I heard an engine noise, I put on my clothes because I knew they were coming to execute me. I was ready. Every day I make this preparation. When they wanted to execute someone, they would have some police in uniforms with white gloves and handcuffs. They took out those prisoners, who never came back. • One day the uniformed police came with their white gloves, opened the gate and came into our room. They called my name. I thought, This is the time of the Lord. So I got up and followed them out the gate. There were two gates. I can see the outer gate. Eight police were with me. I walked with the police to the room of the prison chief. • They told me to squat on a rock. One soldier said it was his first time to execute a prisoner. At the right side of the execution ground was a meeting room and the officers were holding a meeting. I talked to a prisoner and he said, No weapon can hurt me. I am with supernatural power. After he said this, they executed him. Just shot him in the head. Blood everywhere!

the Cookie Quote

Chinese Proverb: "Everyone bears the resemblance of the ones who brought them into this world."

Biblical Truth: Everyone is born a sinner and is a product of our sinful father, Adam. Once we are born again, we are born of God and become like Christ.
