Assisting Chinese church plants

This month, a group of Americans made their way to China to assist in the planting of multiple churches. The time I spent in China was spent with a few churches that had been started or turned over to Chinese pastors since. These churches have now trained up new pastors who are the ones going out to plant these new churches. Here are a couple of posts from the trip:

“We went to Harbin for the day to visit the Chinese pastors, pastors in training, and got to hangout with some awesome believers in China. God is working here and it's humbling to be a part of it. This trip has stirred our hearts even more and we can't wait to return.” -Sara Martin, missionary wife on deputation to China

“What a great encouragement [the group] has been to the church plants here in Harbin China!! [Their home churches] have shown out their love for missions and local churches, and it has touched and encouraged the hearts of these young Chinese pastor boys here!! [The group] has been a huge blessing! Thank you so much!! God bless you!!” -Sadie Xu, Chinese pastor's wife

the Cookie Quote

Chinese Proverb: “If you want happiness for an hour, take a nap. If you want happiness for a day, go fishing. If you want happiness for a month, get married. If you want happiness for a year, inherit a fortune. If you want happiness for a lifetime, help someone else.”

Biblical Truth: “And the ransomed of the LORD will return And come with joyful shouting to Zion, With everlasting joy upon their heads They will find gladness and joy, And sorrow and sighing will flee away.” (Isaiah 35:10)
